v.	:	Hon. Freda L. Wolfson
SCOTT SHIELDS	:	ORDER

This matter having been opened to the Court on motion of the United States, by Paul J. Fishman, United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey (Jennifer Davenport, Assistant United States Attorney, appearing on behalf of the United States before the Court on October 29, 2010 and November 16, 2010), in the presence of Andrea Bergman, attorney for defendant Scott Shields, for a supervised release hearing, the Court having considered the submission of the United States Probation Office for the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, and the defendant having plead guilty to Violation Number 4 (failure to submit monthly reports), and Violations 1-3 and 5-7 remaining open, and the Court having scheduled sentencing on Violation Number 4 for January 14, 2011, and for the reasons stated on the record:

IT IS, on this 16th day of November, 2010, hereby ORDERED that the following conditions be added to the terms of the defendant's previously ordered supervised release:

1. The defendant shall not possess any law enforcement identification, such as, police department, fire department, EMT, or military shields or badges, that he is not authorized to possess, nor shall he represent himself as being a member of any of these groups;
2. The defendant shall provide the United States Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealing and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income. This disclosure applies to the defendant's personal finances, as well as finances for Bear Search and Rescue;
3. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 3015, the United States may have discovery regarding the financial condition of the debtor in the manner in which discovery is authorized by the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure in an action on a claim for a debt. As such, the defendant may be asked to give a deposition regarding his financial condition; and

4. All other terms of the defendant's previously ordered supervised release are to remain in effect.

BY THE COURT:
